Week Nine Wrap up!

Wacky and Tacky Week was full of fun, silliness and lots of smiles and laughs! We had a wacky tacky dress up day and did many things out of the ordinary. We had had to dance across the camp while on the walking like a crab, as well as so many other contest, greasy watermelon in the pool a cup stacking competition as well as where the renegades became young counselors and lifeguards! We made our learned a lot about our counselors with a crazy relays and races with awards and prizes for all. We toes of another camper, we had a bowl on head relay, fun & silly events. We flew kites, did an egg drop contest, splatter painting with squirt guns and sponges, created erupting "volcanoes"! We had backwards day adventure swimmers/campers and then became own wacky snacks and created lava bottles! We also counselor trivia challenge! We are getting ready to finish out the summer and enjoyed spending as much time as possible with our many friends!
